

Resolution of Issues

It is the intent of Washington Service Corps to resolve member and site sponsor problems as soon as they arise. It is hoped that problems can be settled at the local level, so that the member can remain in continuous effective service

If you continue to have concerns, contact your assigned program coordinator at the WSC.